SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT

Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

IN THE CLAIMS

Please amend the following claims 2, 24 and 30, clean and amended versions of which are provided herein.

REMARKS

The last office action has been carefully considered.

Applicant thanks the Examiner for a graciously granting applicant's representative a telephonic interview on March 3, 2003. At that interview the Examiner recommended amending the terms security alarm device in the claim and specification to security alarm system and stated that such an amendment would be permissible based on the disclosure of the specification and comply with 35 USC112. The Examiner also stated that the amendments to claims 2, 20 and 30 as submitted herein defined over the cited prior art of record but that a further search would be necessary.

In view of the above amendments and arguments and the Examiner's indication of allowable subject matter over the cited prior art of record subject to a further search, it is respectfully requested that the rejection be withdrawn and that claims remaining in the
